God of Samaritans and Palestinians, God of Arabs and Americans, God of friends and foes, God of all who call the earth their home – walk with us in this time of worship; walk with us on this journey of life. Help us see the humanity of the foreigner lying injured by the side of the road. Help us respond to the needs all around us. Help us overcome our fear of strangers, our hatred of enemies. Encourage us, that we may be servants to all, be they family or foe, stranger or friend, Arab or American. In the name of Christ who walks with us, we pray. Amen.
