*OPENING PRAYER (based on Psalm 48, Mark 6) Liturgist

Gracious and loving God, we know you are mysterious and mighty. We know you are everywhere, and are in all things. We know you are comforting and accepting. If we can scale the highest mountain, or dive to the deepest depth of the sea, you are with us. Your presence is beyond our imagination, yet we feel this holy presence as we worship together as your people. Thank you for always going the distance with us, no matter how far we wander away from you. May the power of your love claim our allegiance as disciples of Jesus, who is the teacher and shepherd of our lives. In his name, we pray. Amen.

Take Up Your Cross

We believe in God, the maker of all things, source of all life and Mother of all children. Our life is in God, and in God we are one with all beings. We follow Jesus, the Christ, the Revealer of God, who taught us to love, who gave us courage to trust God's grace, and who bid us to take up our cross and follow him. In his life and ministry and his death and resurrection, he has shown us that in losing our lives we find them. He who was crucified is the Lord of the Universe. (continued on next page)

We believe in the Holy Spirit, who lives and works in us; so that we may do the works that Jesus does, and even greater works; so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. Alleluia. Therefore we devote ourselves to disciplined practice of the Way of Jesus in our daily lives, so that we may grow in faithfulness, and serve God in humble, confident love for the sake of the healing of the world. Amen. by Steve Garnaas-Holmes

LORD'S PRAYER Unison

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses; as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.
