*OPENING PRAYER (based on Micah 6) Liturgist

O loving One of mercy and justice, we come into your presence this day with hearts full of the past week. Help us to lay aside our anxious minds as you lift our worries and burdens. Guide us into your presence, that we might know your mercy and justice, not only in this place but in all of the corners of our lives. Walk alongside us, Christ Jesus, that we might know humility and mercy in our journey of faith. Help us to know you more. In the name of Christ, we pray. Amen.

Brother and Teacher

We trust in God, Spirit of life, Creator of all that is and all that is to come; who surrounds us and fills us; who speaks the Word of life in us; and so we listen. We listen to Jesus, Revealer of God, our brother and teacher; who lived in prayer and in love. Listening to God's voice and doing God's will, he gave his life in love; but God raised him to life that is eternal; and so we follow him. We follow in the power of the Holy Spirit, God alive in us, for the sake of the healing of the world. We trust in the power of forgiveness, the reality of resurrection, the gift of the universal Church as the body of Christ, and the mystery of eternal life. Amen. by Steve Garnaas-Holmes

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses; as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

INVITATION TO OFFERING Liturgist

<sup>16</sup> This is how we know what love is: Jesus Christ laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for our brothers and sisters. <sup>17</sup> If anyone has material possessions and sees a brother or sister in need but has no pity on them, how can the love of God be in that person? <sup>18</sup> Dear children, let us not love with words or speech but with actions and in truth. 1 John 3:16-18 (NIV)
